-SUGAR AND THE MINT

(PRESCOTT, AZ)

The Small Glories – “Can two singer-songwriters be better than one? Yes, emphatically, yes, if the two in question are Cara Luft and JD Edwards. . . [they are] a folk-roots powerhouse... It’s magic. ★★★★★” – Winnipeg Free Press thesmallglories.com

Sugar & the Mint – A vibrant, progressive indie-folk/bluegrass band bringing new energy & original material to traditional American music. 2017 winners of prestigious Telluride Bluegrass Festival Band Contest.

The Small Glories – If the name Cara Luft sounds familiar, it is because she was a founding member of country/folk sweethearts the Wailin’ Jennys. The Small Glories’ 2016 debut album “Wondrous Traveler” was nominated for two Canadian Folk Music Awards, found its way onto many critic’s Top 10 lists across North America and Europe. “The Small Glories are the ultimate: two amazing solo performers who somehow manage to melt into one entity, creating incredible harmonies that still raise the hairs on the back of my neck as I write.” – Jennifer Ives, AD, Live from the Rock Music Festival.

Sugar and the Mint recreates old-time sounds, yet pushes arrangements and originals into amazing contemporary, innovative shapes and forms. They have shared the bill with the Nitty Gritty Dirt Band, Emmylou Harris, Punch Brothers,

Jerry Douglas, the Sam Bush Band and more. In addition to festival appearances, Sugar and the Mint draws large crowds at ticketed theater shows in the West and has since begun Eastern U.S. tours. This young, vibrant and very talented band, ranging in ages 18-22, is bound to be going places. sugarandthemint.com
